

◇ Society ◇

Club—Music—Woman's Work

To All a Merry Christmas

Put out the glories of a million lamps.
There comes candlelight at the window.
Give thy flushed scented hours a communion.
Pray as we bustle through snow and the blizz.

Chorus All ye bells in temples of worship—
Smooth the alters with boughs of sweet flowers.
Know in the peace with loveliness and heart humbleness—
Hasten thy birth in mystic showers.

Carols sing O'er the birth of the Christ-child
OFFICEMAN HIS DAY KNEW JESUS THE MASTER
None of earth's number so sanctified Savoir—
The DANSE in ours doth conquer disaster.

Christmas yet day of joy and glad mirth—
Glow in the Christ—destined love—swing wide ye portal of days! let unbond—
Greet the on-coming golden NEW YEARE

December 24, 1921.

MARY SMITH BAKER.

MONDAY

- Promised tea dance at the Country club by Mrs. Caro K. Dresser, hostess.
- Mrs. Martha Sharp's dancing party at Country club.

Mrs. Norris T. Gilbert will give luncheon in Country club, complimentary to her daughter, Miss Yvonne Gilbert.

Holiday society will give tacky dance in Kennedy restaurant.

TUESDAY

- Miss Thelma Kennedy's dance for Miss Anne Kennedy at the Country club.
- Misses Marjorie and Betty Welch and Virginia Winkler, trio of hostesses, at luncheon in Hotel Tulsa.
- Miss Glenn Ears and Gladys Yarbrough's formal Christmas dance in Kennedy restaurant.
- Martes Bridge club will meet with Miss Anna Margaret Wolverton.
- Le Beau Monde club's holiday dance at the Elks club.
- Chapter A. K. P. E. O. will meet with Mrs. E. C. Johnson.
- The Beta Phi sorority will entertain in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Hunt.

WEDNESDAY

- Pi Delta Kappa fraternal dance in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grant E. McCullough, Messrs. Kenneth and Carroll McElroy.
- Miss Dorothy Brown's luncheon for Misses Dorothy Brown and Martha Stricker in the Country club.
- Informal dancing at Country club, from 7 to 9 o'clock.

Miss Amelle Constantin will entertain with bridge shower for Miss Irene Hastings.

Tri-L club will give dancing party in the Kennedy restaurant.

Royal Vagabonds will give dinner party in the Country club.

Kappa Alpha Theta sorority will give luncheon in Old Style Sweet Shoppe.

Miss Ruth Gordon will entertain at dinner in the home of her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gordon, honoring Cadet Leo H. Towers of West Point Military Academy.

G. K. S. Christmas dance with Mr. Walter Miller as host.

O. W. Bridge club will meet with Mrs. C. L. Green.

THURSDAY

- Miss Marion Welch will give a bridge tea in her home to present her holiday visitor, Miss Grace Sanjour of Muskogee.
- Misses Louise Stebbins and Cleophae Wertzberger will give Christmas dance in the Country club.
- Lafayette club will give Christmas dance in Kennedy restaurant.
- Mrs. Fred Severa Clinton will give luncheon in Country club, complimentary to Misses Dorothy McFirness, Ruth Lyon Clinton and Martha McFirness.
- Mr. Leo Helmstetter's bridge party for Mrs. T. D. Sechrist in the home of Mrs. E. L. Fairbanks.
- Mrs. J. H. C. Hopkins' bridge luncheon honoring Mrs. R. E. Harris of Columbus, Kan.
- Miss Halah Fagan will compliment Miss Amelle Constantin with a bridge and miscellaneous shower.
- Mrs. Horace Johnson will give dancing party for her daughter, Miss Mary Johnson.
- Mr. Edward Dalton's holiday dance for her daughter, Miss Pauline Dalton.
- FRIDAY

Miss Genevieve Misener's dance at the Country club, honoring her sister, Miss Lillian Misener.

Misses Lotta Murdoch and Helen Broomefield will give tea dance in the Country club, 4 to 9 o'clock, for Messrs. Dandridge, Broomefield and Bobbe Johnson.

Christmas dance by Banana clubmen in Hotel Tulsa.

Harlequin club's Christmas dance in the Kennedy restaurant.

Gamma Delta sorority will observe Christmastide with large dancing party in Elks club.

Miss Josephine Simmons will give a luncheon in Country club, complimentary to Miss Florence Craver.

Mrs. H. L. Fitzgerald and son, Mr. John E. Fitzgerald, will entertain with a theater party for Misses Irene, Barbara, and Dorothy, Misses Martha Stricker and Dorothy Brown.

Messmes Edward H. Argue and Thomas R. Argue will give another bridge party in the home of the former.

Mrs. A. Ray Wiley will entertain

Breakfasts

The breakfast given by members of the Kappa club in Hotel Tulsa on Thursday, brought together quite a company of girls of the younger set. Cardinals with their small bills shown in contrast with masses of English violets and sweetpeas and carnations in their fragrance and pink white addressed cards. The tables were covered with lace cloths and adorned the edges of the table. The place cards were done in gold and bore the names of the girls seated about the table. The cards were club members. Misses Virginia Winkler, Dorothy Burke, Maryne Lawson, Alice Strooville, Vivian Westmoreland, Kingston, Jameson; Josephine Simmons, Helen Johnson, Irene Lindley, Mary Bell, Betty Hunt, Frances Whitehead, Maxine May, Miss Frances Eakin, Margaret Eysenbach, Lillian Sober, Mary Haasen, Anna Shaw and Gladys Gray of Bartlesville.

TUESDAY

- The breakfast given at the Country club Wednesday afternoon was very engaging function and offered a happy vehicle for Christmas greetings to be exchanged and the welcoming home of those who have come for holiday visits as well as extending cordially to several out town visitors. Mrs. W. N. Still presided as hostess and was assisted by Mrs. James Chisholm, Mr. Roy R. Getman, J. M. Winter, J. H. Tomlinson, John Rogers, Sylvan S. Price, C. H. Hubbard, Eugene E. Duggs, William K. Holmes, Eugene Lorion, J. Owen Pierce, A. T. Burke, John J. Shea, T. H. Mandeville, Harriet Ely of New York, Robert M. Broomfield and Miss Mary Skene. In the game of bridge Shuler served highest. Afterwards, Madames Hubbard and Shuler poured tea, the table radiating the season's charm in pine needles and cones intermingled with red holly berries on their dark green leaf, red candle in silver holders adorned with tinsel and the living room walls. The name most enjoyed was artistic and suggested with smile and shaded lights in red shades those mentioned; others present were Messes James Rush Greenslade, L. E. McCarthy, C. V. Goldrick, T. R. Halliburton, Leah Thompson Kiser, Clifford W. Lord, Gertrude Connell of San Francisco, C. E. Swanson, L. C. Moore, M. B. Downs of Sapulpa, William L. Ferguson, Sam H. Givens, Guitetus C. W. Titus, C. H. Pace, Gray Carroll, Harry B. Murdoch, Nell Hankin of Albuquerque, N. M., W. T. Smith, Howard N. Cole, Floyd J. Bradford, Channing W. Benedict, John H. Means, Lawrence K. Cone, Isaac Shuler and Miss Alice Wilson.

WEDNESDAY

- Misses Elizabeth and Clara Kramer were hostesses at luncheon in the Kennedy restaurant on Friday, the occasion being replete with the season's joy. The table presented with the decorations of Christmas trees, the time was ideally spent. Afterward, the gifts were sent the Salvation Army for distribution. Mrs. Parent served tea and guests a luncheon in keeping with the season.

THURSDAY

- Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Greifreinstain were hosts to members of the Monday Evening club, honoring Mrs. Charles W. Goetz of St. Louis and Mrs. J. H. Lambird of Louisville, the former a niece of Mrs. Greifreinstain here, the latter a guest of Mrs. Dick Saye who returned to her home in the south in the early week. The home was becomingly decorated with holly and mistletoe with a profusion of Christmas bells which hang pendant everywhere. Guests were Mrs. Amelie Day, Elizabeth and Clara Kramer, Helen Downing, Maxine Day, Dorothy Burke, Susan Murray, Maxine Day, Isabel Downing, Helen Wallace, Margaret Campbell, Alice Strooville, Vivian Westmoreland, Natalie Brown, Elizabeth Bruch, Luel Short, Lois Lundy, Minnie Briggs, Linda Dean, Peggy Lee, Dorothy and Dean Carney, Alphareta Scott, Irene Buet, Jean Haaser, Mayne Lawson, Gail Lewis, Dorothy Cline and Mary Elizabeth Braggs.

Luncheons

The Crown Seal Chautauqua circle enjoyed a Christmas party with Mrs. G. W. Parent on the afternoon of Thursday. A few special guests were present besides members.

With games and a Christmas tree, the time was ideally spent. Afterward, the gifts were sent the Salvation Army for distribution. Mrs. Parent served tea and guests a luncheon in keeping with the season.

FRIDAY

Misses Elizabeth and Clara Kramer were hostesses at luncheon in the Kennedy restaurant on Friday, the occasion being replete with the season's joy. The table presented with the decorations of Christmas trees, the time was ideally spent. After-

ward, the gifts were sent the Salvation Army for distribution. Mrs. Parent served tea and guests a luncheon in keeping with the season.

SATURDAY

Misses Elizabeth and Clara Kramer were hostesses at luncheon in the Kennedy restaurant on Friday, the occasion being replete with the season's joy. The table presented with the decorations of Christmas trees, the time was ideally spent. After-

ward, the gifts were sent the Salvation Army for distribution. Mrs. Parent served tea and guests a luncheon in keeping with the season.

SUNDAY

Misses Elizabeth and Clara Kramer were hostesses at luncheon in the Kennedy restaurant on Friday, the occasion being replete with the season's joy. The table presented with the decorations of Christmas trees, the time was ideally spent. After-

ward, the gifts were sent the Salvation Army for distribution. Mrs. Parent served tea and guests a luncheon in keeping with the season.

MONDAY

Misses Elizabeth and Clara Kramer were hostesses at luncheon in the Kennedy restaurant on Friday, the occasion being replete with the season's joy. The table presented with the decorations of Christmas trees, the time was ideally spent. After-

ward, the gifts were sent the Salvation Army for distribution. Mrs. Parent served tea and guests a luncheon in keeping with the season.

TUESDAY

Misses Elizabeth and Clara Kramer were hostesses at luncheon in the Kennedy restaurant on Friday, the occasion being replete with the decorations of Christmas trees, the time was ideally spent. After-

ward, the gifts were sent the Salvation Army for distribution. Mrs. Parent served tea and guests a luncheon in keeping with the season.

WEDNESDAY

Misses Elizabeth and Clara Kramer were hostesses at luncheon in the Kennedy restaurant on Friday, the occasion being replete with the decorations of Christmas trees, the time was ideally spent. After-

ward, the gifts were sent the Salvation Army for distribution. Mrs. Parent served tea and guests a luncheon in keeping with the season.

THURSDAY

Misses Elizabeth and Clara Kramer were hostesses at luncheon in the Kennedy restaurant on Friday, the occasion being replete with the decorations of Christmas trees, the time was ideally spent. After-

ward, the gifts were sent the Salvation Army for distribution. Mrs. Parent served tea and guests a luncheon in keeping with the season.

FRIDAY

Misses Elizabeth and Clara Kramer were hostesses at luncheon in the Kennedy restaurant on Friday, the occasion being replete with the decorations of Christmas trees, the time was ideally spent. After-

ward, the gifts were sent the Salvation Army for distribution. Mrs. Parent served tea and guests a luncheon in keeping with the season.

SATURDAY

Misses Elizabeth and Clara Kramer were hostesses at luncheon in the Kennedy restaurant on Friday, the occasion being replete with the decorations of Christmas trees, the time was ideally spent. After-

ward, the gifts were sent the Salvation Army for distribution. Mrs. Parent served tea and guests a luncheon in keeping with the season.

SUNDAY

Misses Elizabeth and Clara Kramer were hostesses at luncheon in the Kennedy restaurant on Friday, the occasion being replete with the decorations of Christmas trees, the time was ideally spent. After-

ward, the gifts were sent the Salvation Army for distribution. Mrs. Parent served tea and guests a luncheon in keeping with the season.

MONDAY

Misses Elizabeth and Clara Kramer were hostesses at luncheon in the Kennedy restaurant on Friday, the occasion being replete with the decorations of Christmas trees, the time was ideally spent. After-

ward, the gifts were sent the Salvation Army for distribution. Mrs. Parent served tea and guests a luncheon in keeping with the season.

TUESDAY

Misses Elizabeth and Clara Kramer were hostesses at luncheon in the Kennedy restaurant on Friday, the occasion being replete with the decorations of Christmas trees, the time was ideally spent. After-

ward, the gifts were sent the Salvation Army for distribution. Mrs. Parent served tea and guests a luncheon in keeping with the season.

WEDNESDAY

Misses Elizabeth and Clara Kramer were hostesses at luncheon in the Kennedy restaurant on Friday, the occasion being replete with the decorations of Christmas trees, the time was ideally spent. After-

ward, the gifts were sent the Salvation Army for distribution. Mrs. Parent served tea and guests a luncheon in keeping with the season.

THURSDAY

Misses Elizabeth and Clara Kramer were hostesses at luncheon in the Kennedy restaurant on Friday, the occasion being replete with the decorations of Christmas trees, the time was ideally spent. After-

ward, the gifts were sent the Salvation Army for distribution. Mrs. Parent served tea and guests a luncheon in keeping with the season.

FRIDAY

Misses Elizabeth and Clara Kramer were hostesses at luncheon in the Kennedy restaurant on Friday, the occasion being replete with the decorations of Christmas trees, the time was ideally spent. After-

ward, the gifts were sent the Salvation Army for distribution. Mrs. Parent served tea and guests a luncheon in keeping with the season.

SATURDAY

Misses Elizabeth and Clara Kramer were hostesses at luncheon in the Kennedy restaurant on Friday, the occasion being replete with the decorations of Christmas trees, the time was ideally spent. After-

ward, the gifts were sent the Salvation Army for distribution. Mrs. Parent served tea and guests a luncheon in keeping with the season.

SUNDAY

Misses Elizabeth and Clara Kramer were hostesses at luncheon in the Kennedy restaurant on Friday, the occasion being replete with the decorations of Christmas trees, the time was ideally spent. After-

ward, the gifts were sent the Salvation Army for distribution. Mrs. Parent served tea and guests a luncheon in keeping with the season.

MONDAY

Misses Elizabeth and Clara Kramer were hostesses at luncheon in the Kennedy restaurant on Friday, the occasion being replete with the decorations of Christmas trees, the time was ideally spent. After-

ward, the gifts were sent the Salvation Army for distribution. Mrs. Parent served tea and guests a luncheon in keeping with the season.

TUESDAY

Misses Elizabeth and Clara Kramer were hostesses at luncheon in the Kennedy restaurant on Friday, the occasion being replete with the decorations of Christmas trees, the time was ideally spent. After-

ward, the gifts were sent the Salvation Army for distribution. Mrs. Parent served tea and guests a luncheon in keeping with the season.

WEDNESDAY

Misses Elizabeth and Clara Kramer were hostesses at luncheon in the Kennedy restaurant on